

The Queen

Copyright(c)2019

Music: John Hinton

Lyrics: JGM

♩ = 110 Intro

D Em G G D7 G C G D There's

5 Verse

craft upon the river broad, there's craft upon the sea, and 9

inland on our bonny lochs still other craft there be: but

13

there's a little boat I know whose charms outweigh them a - ll, she

17

Em sails (to use the Doric) on The Forth and Clyde "Can - aul".

21 Bridge

G C G D

From Port Dundas to "Caurie" town
 She winds her wooded way,
 And on to calm Craigmarloch, there
 A little while to stay;
 And when she blows her siren shrill
 To give the bridge-men call,
 She fairly wakes the echoes on
 The Forth and Clyde "Canaul"!

Oh, river boats are bonnie boats,
 And deep-sea boats are grand,
 And dear to me's the little boat
 That skirts the "Silver Strand";
 But ah! The boat I really love –
 That holds my heart in thrall –
 I glint her thro' the trees that fringe
 The Forth and Clyde "Canaul"

